

Scarlet Snake (Cemophora coccinea). Nonvenomous. Very similarly named to the Scarlet Kingsnake, but actually a different species. Scarlet snakes are native to most of the North Carolina, excluding the far western part of the state.