

Eastern Garter Snake (Thamnophis sirtalis sirtalis). A small snake, sometimes found in gardens. Harmless to people, although they have a very mild venom that is medically insignificant to humans and pets. Native to all of North Carolina.