

Another example of the Eastern Garter Snake found in North Carolina, this time with some more red coloration.