

Timber Rattlesnake (Crotalus horridus). Also known as the Canebrake Rattlesnake in Eastern NC. Venomous. Also a pit viper, so the head shape and eyes let you know it's venomous (plus the rattles). Timber rattlesnakes have been found in essentially all of North Carolina, excluding some of the very middle of the state.