

Ring Necked Snake (Diadophis punctatus). Very tiny and very harmless, these snakes are black or brown with a yellow ring behind their head. Their undersides are red or orange. They're native to all of North Carolina.